Found one again.!! A DB2/4 with a special body, they only made a few of them like this with a Muliner body.! Engine is in good condition, rear axel and front suspension are rebuild. Chassis is perfect, body is solid. But interior is not compleet. Now also a very nice, good driveable example in the collection.

Make of car: Aston Martin

Type: DB 2/4 Year of construction: 1956

Condition: to restore
