RHD Automatic. Offered for sale at 39.500 euro, this must be the cheapest classic Aston Martin actually on the planet ! Good chassis, excellent aluminium outer skin, steel substructure needing some work here and there, properly running engine, auto gearbox, axles & differential, suspension, steering, interior, etc... All major components still available with the car but also some minor ones missing. Comes with original chassis plate and heritage certificate. Until now not known in lists of AMOC.
